

Stroud Communiversality returns this year with a fresh feast of Stroud's finest projects being showcased and explored over three packed days. With Land, Food and Money at the heart of this recession, our response is an examination of practical, creative and innovative solutions to support the growth and development of a resilient local economy.

Location:

The Exchange, Brick Row

Registration:

9.30am, Friday 15th May

3 Day Cost: £280/£190<sub>concs.</sub>

including 5 Meals

1 Day Cost: £100/£70<sub>concs</sub>

including 2 meals

For more information & bookings

please go to

www.stroudcommonwealth.org.uk

Or Email:

vitalsqueeze@gmail.com

Or phone Odilia:

01453 766598

Friday 15th May

Richard Keating & Martin Large

Connecting with Place, People and Land through Walking and Art

Exploring models for sustainable livelihoods by researching and experiencing how we connect with nature and the landscape.

Evening: Meal & Social at Star Anise Arts Cafe

Saturday 16th May

Nick Weir & Odilia Jarman

Food for Life

Closing the gap between production and consumption by directly supporting our farmers and taking part in cultivating, harvesting, preparing and sharing our food.

Evening: Group Bring & Share Meal followed by Ideas Market Place

Sunday 17th May

Molly Scott Cato & Max Comfort

Working for Ourselves; Working for Each Other

What might a job for life really mean?

Becoming a producer in your local economy can offer greater satisfaction than working on the global treadmill - and would also be healthier for the planet.

Evening: Meal & Collage at Star Anise Arts Cafe

Stroud Communiversality

Spring 2009

Inspiring Self-Reliant Communities

Stroud
Communiversality is an initiative of
Stroud Common Wealth Ltd
in association with Transition Stroud.